

BEYOND MAINTENANCE

Turn your Workday platform into a growth engine.

ActiveCare is Okorio's managed services partnership for Workday customers ready to move from maintenance to momentum. We extend your team with senior experts and former Workday professionals who optimize your platform, embed AI and advanced features, and unlock the full value of your investment, so your team stops firefighting and starts innovating.

— A PARTNERSHIP FOR EVERY STAGE

RUN

Foundational Support

Reliable, expert support that ensures your system runs smoothly. We free your team from the daily grind of ticket management so they can focus on higher-value work.

OPTIMIZE

Platform Enhancement

Get more out of your existing investment. We deploy new features, enhance modules, and resolve configuration issues that have lingered since implementation.

INNOVATE

Roadmapping & AI

A strategic partner for your multi-year Workday roadmap. We guide your adoption of AI and emerging capabilities, evolving your platform into a competitive advantage.

— THE OKORIO DIFFERENCE

Built for Momentum

Success is a continuous journey, not a go-live milestone. We keep your platform adapting to your strategy quarter after quarter.

Intelligence is Not Optional

AI, analytics, and new Workday features are a competitive edge. We embed intelligence into your systems and turn data into strategic assets.

An Extension of Your Team

We transform your capacity, not just close tickets. Your team shifts from operational firefighting to high-impact, strategic work.

Empowerment, Not Dependency

We build your team's capabilities through continuous knowledge transfer. We're here to make you stronger, not lock you in.
